Rob-Kristen caught kissing!

Rumours about Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart's secret romance have been making news for quite a while. But both stars have constantly denied those rumours, insisting that they are 'just friends'. Rob and Kristen, who co-star in The Twilight Saga: New Moon, were in Hollywood for the screening of their new movie and supposedly stayed together at The Chateau Marmont. And it was the night previous to the screening that the sparks caught the media eye! "Rob wanted a cigarette so he went outside with Kristen for about 15 minutes. They were hugging, as Rob was smoking his cigarette, and then he leaned down and kissed her on the lips. He had his arm around her almost the whole time," said an informed source.

Fergie enjoys girlie fun!

Even after marrying Josh Duhamel, Black Eyed Peas singer Fergie continued indulging in some naughty fun with pretty girls she met at parties! For some reason, she did not feel like she was cheating on her husband, because she was not sleeping with another man! However, when she confided the same to her therapist, the latter made her see that she would still be cheating on Josh by having flings with women. "I've had a lot of fun with women, and I'm not ashamed of it. The problem is that I also love a well-endowed man. But just because I enjoy women doesn't mean I'm allowed to have affairs in my relationship. Talking with my therapist taught me that it's still cheating even if it's with girls, so there is a rule there," she confessed.

Sarah loves the smell of diapers

Sex and the City star Sarah Jessica Parker is busy changing diapers these days, but she is not complaining because she loves the smell of her babies' dirty diapers! Sarah and husband Matthew Broderick chose the 'surrogate mom' way to start their family and are now the happy parents of five-month-old twin daughters, Loretta and Tabitha. And Sarah is enjoying every moment of motherhood from cuddling her babies to changing dirty diapers! "I love the smell of diapers – I even like when they're wet and all warm... Being a mother means doing everything for your baby and I'm loving every bit of it," she said.

Salma's sexy beard!

Oh no, it's not hormones and it most certainly isn't the latest trend in Hollywood! Salma Hayek stars in John C. Reilly's film Cirque Du Freak: The Vampire's Assistant, in which she plays a bearded woman. Obviously, she felt far from attractive, but John really tried to make her feel better she says. "I never got used to wearing the beard but John C. Reilly made me feel good about it, telling me I looked so hot with the beard. It's like when I was a whale and swollen from the pregnancy and I'd never looked worse in my life, and people said, 'You glow!' " says Salma. But what she felt worst was that her baby girl had to see her with the beard as she was with her all the time. But then, it was easy to remove and paste the beard as she liked!
